

Press release

National Cooperative Development Corporation (NCDC) is organizing the first ever India International Cooperative Trade Fair (IICTF) from 11-13 October 2019 at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi, India.

The trade fair will be the first of its kind and aimed at promoting cooperative to cooperative trade within India and abroad leading to enhanced rural and farm linkages and connectivity. The Fair will feature conferences, exhibitions, B2B meetings, sales promotion, marketing and products display business, networking, policy advocacy, etc., providing excellent opportunity to the participants to collaborate and explore business prospects with the cooperative organizations from India and abroad.

A large number of Indian and international cooperative organizations are expected to participate in this three-day event. Apart from having seminars on thematic and sectoral cooperative business issues, the focus sectors will be credit and finance services, co-op banking, insurance, cyber security, technology and capacity building, agri-business and food processing, textiles, packaging, storage, farm machinery, livestock, dairy, fisheries, hand-looms, handicrafts, textiles, FMCG, health and hospitality, trade, marketing and brand promotion, etc.,.

The trade fair will offer huge opportunities for all GCC countries, especially Qatar, in terms of business networking, product sourcing and above all, interacting with the primary producers of a wide range of products and service providers. More details on IICTF are seen at the website www.iictf.in or www.ictf.co.in.
